Join the WMGMA Education Committee

Are you looking for a way to become involved in WMGMA? Consider joining the education committee!

Members of the education committee work to provide quality, cost-effective educational programs and webinars offering relevant content, enthusiastic presenters and new ideas for enhancing practice management. They meet once per month via conference call for one hour. Outside work may include securing speakers and discussing education content with speakers. We are looking for one to two additional committee members.

WMGMA Want's YOUR Insight on Social Media!

Would you like to be involved with WMGMA but are short on time to commit?

Do you know a thing or two about social media, or what you'd like to see from us on social media?

Consider joining the WMGMA social media advisory group!

WMGMA is considering a social media page and would like YOUR input! WMGMA is seeking a small group of members to discuss the platform and type of content that would be best for our members.

This group will meet 2-3 times this summer, for a maximum of 1 hour per meeting via conference call.

Practical approaches to the merger and sales frenzy

This article initially appeared in a previous 2018 issue of MGMA Connection magazine.

Amid all the competing challenges you may face in physician group practice, one of the more foundational aspects of successful leadership may not be top of mind but should be a regular consideration in your work: organizational governance.
